Social'st State Officer.

W. C. Rodgers, of Waterloo, social ist, having been the only candidate on the state ticket for regent of the university to fill a vacancy, will receive a certificate of election November 25, when the state canvassing board meets unless it should turn out that enough voters wrote in some other man's name on the ballot and by one of the two republican candidates elected for full terms. No condidates filed nomination papers at the primaries for the office of railway com missioner to fill a vacancy. As there was no full term to fill there was nothing but a vacancy to run for and all the caudidates nominated according to the terms of the primary law were placed on the ballot as candidates to fill a vacancy. In the case of regents of the university there was a vacancy and also two full terms to fill.

Western Classification Goes.

The State Railway commission made public the fact that it had adopted the western classification of freight rates which it refused to adopt some weeks ago. It authorizes the railroads of Nebraska to put the rates into effect No vember 16. The commission changed the rate in the classification on sagar so that a car should be 30,000 instead of 33,000 pounds; changed the rate on nursery stock back to the old class; changed the classification of preserves in pails back to the old class. The western classification of rates was put into effect by the other states west a Chicago some weeks ago and a request was made of the Nebraska commiss on to put the same rate into effect here. but time was taken by the local commission to study the matter, with the result that the request was granted. In the meantime tariffs of the ra'lroads have been received in Nebraska stamped Not applicable in Nebraska."

Kennison Murder Case Submitted. The Kennison murder case was argued and subm'tted to the supreme court on error, Judge F. G. Hamer and his con representing the defendant and Grant Martin, assistant attorney towns on the Northwestern railroad. general representing the state. Kennison was convicted of the murder of Sam D. Cox at Minatare. The verdict was murder in the second degree. The defendant argued that the trial judge was responsible for reversible error in instructions to the jury. The state contends that the defendant was for tunate in getting a verdict for murder in the second degree.

International Will Contest. An international will contest, involving a fortune of $37,000, was brought to the supreme court from Boone county. The suit involves the estate of Nils O. Nilson, who died near Albien two years ago, leaving no wife or children. A few relatives in Norway were left small bequests, but the bulk of the property was left to a couple of church parishes in Norway it is different from a railroad company as trustees for charitable purposes. Relatives of Nilson contested the will and the county and district courts of only express company in the state that Boone county decided in their favor. carries cream.

White Plague Hospital.

The Nebraska state board of health would buy the old Western Normal building near Lincoln and establish there a hospital to combat the white plague. The scheme has been evolved by Dr. Sward of Oakland.

"The amount of tuberculosis in the slums of Omaha and South Omaha is terrible to contemplate," said Dr. Sward. "Thousands of people there are living with afflicted persons breathing in the germs of the great white plague and themselves in time tainting the air with the disease. All this can be remedied and the time will come when tubercular patients will be placed by themselves the same as the mentally afflicted. The state of Nebraska will have to come to this and the sooner she prepares by purchasing a suitable location for such a hospital the better it will be."

report of Dr. Sward, who has compiled the vital statistics from January 1 to October 1, shows that the total number of deaths in the state was 7,462 the greatest number being from infants' diseases. Heart disease ranked second as the destroyer, 559 victims being recorded. Old age with 40, victims and tuberculosis with 453 ranked next as the destroyers of mankind in Nebraska. March was the most fatal month with January second. The number of males dying in the first ten months of this year was 4,048 and the number of females 3,414. The decensed persons were divided among American and foreign born in the ratlu cf 5,687 to 1,775.

The Issuance of Warrants. State Auditor Searle, who was out of the city, wrote his deputy, H. L. Cook, suggesting the possibility of refraining from issuing state warrants during the present financial flurry, Mr. Searle's idea was that the money of the state would thereby be left in the banks. The law on this course was investigated by Mr. Cook as soon as the suggestion was received and he declared it impossible to take such action. Mr. Searle was cognizant of the por . mandamus suit being effective against him, but he thought the general sentlment of tho people of Nebraska would back him. It was found that too many mandatory provisions are hedged about the issuance of warrants to make the plan feasible. Any any rate, under existing conditions. It is not known what other position was offered Mr. Rose or whether any definite place was placed within his reach. Since the meeting, however, it has been made plain by Mr. Rose and his friends that he is still after the place and has not yielded a particle in his desire to secure the appointment.

> Sir Horace Meets Mr. Bryan. Sir Horace Plunkett spent a day in Lincoln. He came to call upon Chancelor E. Benjam'n Andrews of Nebraska university. The trip to Lincoln was made in company with State Senators Thomas and Saunders of Omaha, who introduced him to the chancellor. It happened that Governor Folk of Missouri was passing through Lincoln and had stopped off for lunch with Mr. Bryan Sir Horace Plunkett met both gentlemen.

Dickson Surrenders Pass.

R. R. Dickson, of O'Neill, is no longer a passholder of the Northwestren railroad. He used to be. A letter was received from Bon, T. White, general counsel of the Northwestern, by the railway commission saying Mr. Dickson had returned his pass and should not now be carried on the list of passholders.

HERE'S A NEW DEFINITION. And Many There Are Will Say Senator

Platt Was Right.

A rather cynical joke has been recently credited to Senator Platt. The senator, on his last visit to the Manhattan Beach hotel, allowed a pretty little girl, a western millionaire's daughter, to be presented to

The little girl, in the course of one of her many chats with the aged statesman, said:

"Tell me, won't you, senator, what political economy is?" "Political economy, my dear child,"

Senator Platt is said to have replied, "is the art of never buying mere votes than you actually need."

BABY'S ECZEMA GREW WORSE.

Hospitale and Doctors Could Not Re-Hove Him-But Cuticura Remedice a Speedy, Permanent Cure.

"Ecsema appeared when our baby was three months old. We applied to several doctors and hospitals, each of which gave us something different every time, but nothing brought relief. At last, one of our friends recommended to us Cutleura Soap and Cutleura Ointment. A few days afterwards improvement could be noted. Since then we have used nothing but Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and now the baby is six months old and is quite cured. All that we used was one cake of Cutieura Soap and two boxes Cuticura Ointment, costing in all $1.25. C. F. Kara, 342 East 65th Street, New York, March 39, 1906."

Martine' Revenge.

A correspondent tells the story of two house martins' nests built against an attic window of a farm, to which the birds came for several successive years. Last spring, however, before tney arrived, a sparrow took up her abode in one of the nests.

Shortly after the martins returned as usual, and one day the farm people noticed that the hole of the nost which the sparrow occupied had been blocked up. Next morning a boy climbed up to ascertain the meaning of this, and not finding any outlet broke away part of the nest, to find the peor little sparrow dead on her

Shy One Fare.

Inspector Johnson, of the Columbus Railway company, tells the following story of one of his new conductors:

The inspector had boarded a car on one of the East Side lines and glancing at the register, noticed that there were nine passengers on and only eight fares. He touched the conductor on the shoulder, a green man from the country, and said:

"You are shy one fare. There are nine people on the car and only eight fares collected."

"By gosh," said the conductor, "that's right," and hastily grabbing the bell cord, he stopped the car and yelling at the passengers ordered one of them to "git off."-Columbus Despatch.

Worse and Worse.

"The late Admiral Walker," sold a naval officer in Washington, "believed heartily in marriage for sailors. He always urged sallors to wed. Nautical backelers were held up to scorn by him.

"Strolling with him in New York one day we met a young ship-broker. Admiral Walker halled the young man delightedly. He clapped him on the back, wrung his hand and cried:

"'Congratulations on your marriage, my young friend. No more sewing on of buttons now, eh?"

"'No, indeed,' said the ship-broker sharply. I wear a belt now. It keeps me so busy raising money to pay my wife's bills that I have no time to sew on buttons."

PLEASANT SUMMER.

Right Food the Cause.

A Wis. woman says:

"I was run down and weak, troubled with nervousness and headache for the last six years. The least excitement would make me nervous and cause severe headache.

"This summer I have been eating Grape-Nuts regularly and feel better than for the six past years.

"I am not troubled with headache and nervousness, and weigh more than I ever have before in my life. I gained 5 Ibs. in one week."
